

OKINAWAN'S ARE COMING!

Okinawa Masters Seminar in Washington, DC – November 18 & 19, 2017

Set aside these dates!! - You gotta go to this! - Set aside these dates!!

- Limited to first 200 registrations -

The Okinawa Prefectural Government and the Okinawa Karate-do Shinko-kai (The Society for the Advancement of Traditional Okinawa Karate), promoting traditional Okinawa Karate as a unique cultural asset of Okinawa that has been shared throughout the world, is sending four masters of Okinawa Karate-Do, representing Shorin-Ryu, Goju-Ryu, and Uechi-Ryu, to the United States to teach seminar, perform demonstrations, and for karate exchange with participants. This is a unique and exceptional opportunity, which brings the Okinawan Karate experience to America. Being able to train with four Okinawa Masters from these different styles at the same event outside of Okinawa is very rare.

The event will take place on November 18th & 19th, Opening Ceremony at 8:30 am in Chantilly, Virginia, at the NOVA Field House, 14810 Murdock Street, Chantilly, VA 20151 <http://novafieldhouse.com> (located about 10 minutes drive from Dulles International Airport).

Registration deadline is November 10 while the seminar fee is $149 (includes 6% Virginia Sales Tax), including twelve (12) hours of training over 2 days, lunch each day, evening show, T-Shirt, and Farewell-Sayonara Party. Every practitioner with a heartfelt interest in Okinawa Karate should attend this extraordinary event.

The seminar will be led by:

- Meitatsu Yagi, Goju-Ryu, 10 Dan
- Minoru Nakazato, Shorin-Ryu, 10 Dan
- Masanari Kikugawa, Goju-Ryu, 9 Dan
- Harukichi Shimabukuro, Uechi-Ryu, 8 Dan
